Looking for a contemporary alternative to the diner-style card holders of yesteryear? This collection of Contemporary Card Holders from American Metalcraft are just the ticket. With modern materials and simple, understated designs, these card holders wouldn't look out of place in even the trendiest sushi bar or pâtisserie.

The organic C-shaped swirl of this stainless steel card holder is eye-catching and uber contemporary. It's stylishly unconventional, and the attached alligator clip elevates your signage so it can be seen from across the dining room. If you're looking for a card holder that makes a statement, look no further. Your guests will love the serpentine curves of this artfully functional piece, guaranteed.
